Judge Bluebond seeks to maintain a courtroom environment (both online and in person) in which all persons are treated with dignity and respect, irrespective of their gender identity, expression or preference. To that end, individuals appearing before the Court are invited to identify their preferred pronouns (e.g., he, she, they, etc.) and their preferred honorific (e.g., Mr., Miss, Ms., Mrs., Mx, M, etc.). Individuals may do so by advising the Courtroom Deputy or Judge prior to any appearance and/or, in the case of remote hearings, by providing this information in the person's screen name in ZoomGov.

Docket 45

Courtroom Deputy:

- NONE LISTED -

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for February 10, 2022:

Grant motion. Find Mr. Ramon in (civil) contempt for failing to file monthly declarations on November 1, December 1 and January 1 and impose sanctions of $50 per day (up to a maximum of 30 days) to induce compliance. Discuss next steps with US Trustee if additional sanctions prove ineffective.

Final Ruling for February 10, 2022:

Respondent appeared and court explained that declarations should be filed even if required payments have not been made. Respondent brought money orders for partial payment. Court instructed respondent to send payments that were to be made to the debtors to the debtors and payments that were to be made to the U.S. Trustee to the U.S. Trustee. (Court recommended that registered mail be used or some other means of transmission that will permit respondent to determine whether payments were actually delivered.) Court continued hearing to give respondent an opportunity to make payments and file missing declarations.

statement.

Final Ruling for September 16, 2020:

Continue case status conference to January 27, 2021 at 2:00 p.m. Disclosure statement may be heard at same time if debtor files plan and disclosure statement sufficiently in advance of that date to comply with applicable rules. Status report waived if court is conducting hearing on disclosure statement concurrently with status conference.

Tentative Ruling for January 27, 2021:

Continue status conference to date that can serve as date of hearing on disclosure statement if debtor files plan and disclosure statement by February 1, 2021 -- March 31, 2021 at 2:00 p.m. Debtor need not file updated status report for that status conference. APPEARANCES WAIVED ON JANUARY 27, 2021.

Tentative Ruling for March 30, 2021:

Revisit status of case after conclusion of hearing on amended disclosure statement.

Tentative Ruling for June 2, 2021:

If court confirms plan, set post-confirmation status conference and deadline for reorganized debtor to file post-confirmation status report.

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for June 1, 2022:

A statement of operations is a financial statement that evaluates a company's operations and current financial standing. It includes such details as a company's operating expenses, total revenue and operating profit to provide a look at the company's performance and financial health. A statement of operations also uses an equation that finds a company's net income by subtracting its expenses from its revenue. Professionals can use a few different titles to refer to a statement of operations, but they all refer to the same type of document:

Profit and loss statement (P&L)
Statement of income
Statement of earnings.

ZoomGov Appearance by:

6/21/22 - Ivan Gold

6/21/22 - John-Patrick M. Fritz

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for March 2, 2022:

The deadline for debtor to file a plan is March 29, 2022. Even if the court does not require a separate disclosure statement, it is this court's practice to conduct a status conference on the plan confirmation process at which the court will, among other things, confirm that the debtor's proposed plan contains sufficient information to satisfy code requirements and enable parties in interest to decide how to vote on plan and whether plan is or is not unconfirmable on its face. Continue case status conference to a date at which these matters can be discussed after plan is filed.

Final Ruling for March 2, 2022:

Continue hearing to April 6, 2022 at 10:00 a.m. Court waived requirement of a status report for this status conference but indicated that it would like to discuss plan procedures at the April 6 status conference.

Tentative Ruling for April 6, 2022:

Continue case status conference to date after April 18, 2022 at which court can take a preliminary look at plan that debtor intends to file by that date.
